South America beckons as Trilogy opens new office

Trilogy Communications is pleased to announce the appointment of Victor Porter to head up its new South America operation. Victor is the obvious choice for the role with a track record spanning some 20 years in broadcast communications with experience across all of the available technologies.

The new office will be focussed exclusively on South America and from its location in Rio de Janeiro, Brasil activity over the coming months will be concentrated on further developing a dedicated distributor network across the region. Commenting on the new office Barry Spencer, General Manager Trilogy Broadcast said "We welcome Victor on board and look forward to seeing the results of his endeavours in the region. We believe this move strengthens our ability to serve the market and our customers."

Trilogy South America will look after the full range of Trilogy's broadcast products including Commander, Orator and Mercury intercom systems and Mentor XL, the ultimate SPG/master reference generator.
